(a) whether handloom clothes are given preference in purchase of clothes as per the requirement of various Ministries of the Government of India :

(b) if so, what is the procedure for purchasing cloth;

(c) the quantity and amount of mill-made cloth as well as handloom cloth purchased by the Ministry of Railways out of total purchase of cloths during the year 2000-2001; and

(d) whether Government will direct the Ministry of Railways that under the policy to provide employment to the weavers, only handloom clothes should be purchased ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF TEXTILES (SHRI V. DHANANJAY KUMAR) : (a) Government has issued instructions on the arrangements for purchase of handloom goods for use by Central Government Ministries/Departments on the basis of Single Tender System.

(b) The indenting Ministries/Departments place their indents for supply of handloom items under Single Tender System on Association of Corporations and Apex Societies of Handlooms (ACASH). ACASH in turn places orders on State/member agencies for production and supply of handloom items depending upon their production capacity. ACASH arranges the supply of the handloom items from those agencies.

(c) The Ministry of Railways has informed that out of total purchase orders of approximate value of Rs. 57.23 crore for cloth items, placed in the year 2000-2001, the approximate value of mill-made items was Rs. 33.11 crore and handloom items Rs. 9.10 crore.

(d) It is not considered appropriate to issue any such direction.
